

EXPLORE Web Site

Reflection

It is very time consuming to maintain a web site. I have revised the site to include information that does not need constant updating. In the future I want to add more curriculum to the site. At the moment there are links teachers can use for enrichment. When time permits I want to expand the site to include links for teachers to utilize when differentiating curriculum.